Membership Terms & Conditions

1. Membership of the CAMpRA Rally Group (CRG) is FREE and open to anyone over the age of 18 with a self-contained motor caravan [1].
2. To stay on a Certified Aire or attend a CRG Rally, at least one occupant of the motorhome or campervan must be a member of CAMpRA Rally Group.
3. Membership is FREE. Applications to join can be made via the CRG website by clicking here: membership or by scanning the QR code on signage at any CRG Certified Aire.
4. All members will be required to agree to these Membership Terms & Conditions and the CRG Code of Conduct[2], when applying online for membership.
5. All members must agree to adhere to the conditions of use, as displayed at all CRG Certified Aires' and any other local regulations specified by the Aire owner.
6. Failure to comply with any of these terms and conditions and any local Aire regulations may result in termination of your membership.
7. Membership is not transferable.
8. Members wishing to cancel their membership should do so by emailing the group at crg@camprarally.org.uk quoting the name and membership number for cancellation.
9. Evidence of membership may be requested at any CRG Certified Aire.
10. The CRG reserve the right to terminate membership(s) at any time.
11. Data Protection: Other than your name and email address (required to enable the issue of a membership card), and your Country of Residence (for statistical purposes) no other information will be requested or held by CAMpRA.
12. No personal data or details will be passed to any 3rd parties, but we may be required to supply information by Membership Number and Country to Government Departments if requested.
    CAMpRA is registered with the Information Commissioners Office for the purpose of GDPR.

1 Self-contained motor caravan means a motorhome or campervan having an onboard toilet and an onboard waste water tank/container.
2 Group Code of Conduct and other terms can be found on the CAMpRA Rally Group website at: www.camprarally.org.uk

CAMpRA Rally Group have prepared this document using information available at the time of writing and accept no liability for any recommendations made in this document or the use thereof.